ORS does not have any issues, and does not object to waiving the prehearing conference.

Dear Mr. Dong and counsel:

I do not believe a prehearing conference is necessary.

thanks

Dear Counsel:

We have a prehearing conference scheduled for this docket on Monday, March 9. I am writing to find out from you whether there are any unusual issues of which I need to be aware in this application, and to ask whether a prehearing conference is necessary. Please advise. To ensure that there is no ex parte communication regarding this matter, I would remind you that any response should be transmitted using "Reply All." I will make sure that this email and all responses are posted to DMS. Thank you.
